Yuca's Restaurant has been creating happy memories through food at their 8'x10' converted shoeshine shack, lovingly known as The Hut, for over forty-seven years. Now under Dora Herrera's leadership, Yuca's Restaurant was born from her mother Socorro's dream of sharing authentic Mexican flavors with Los Angeles. What began as a one-woman show quickly turned into a beloved Mexican food staple in LA that is known for Yucatan-style dishes based on the recipes from their family's traditional Mexican kitchen in Merida – tacos, tortas, quesadillas, and award-winning burritos, including Cochinita Pibil and Carne Asada, just to name a few. Yuca's culinary excellence has been recognized with a prestigious James Beard Award in the America's Classics category. They're no stranger to hearing customers exclaim, "This is the best I have ever tasted!"

World Empanadas

After a corporate career in banking, Lia Hirtz took a chance at age 55 and opened World Empanadas in a 400-square-foot space in the back of a liquor store. She convinced her husband, Carlos, to sell his beloved vintage Fiat for startup funds for the restaurant and also enlisted help from her two sons to create five flavors of the Argentinian pastry. Today, World Empanadas is renowned in the Los Angeles community for its exquisite homemade Argentine empanadas that are baked fresh daily in Burbank, California. You can pair timeless classics like beef, chicken, and spinach with a variety of their homemade fat-free salsas, or you can opt for something sweeter like Nutella and banana. Beyond their brick-and-mortar, World Empanadas also caters to events across Los Angeles County and provides convenient delivery within a six-mile radius of zip code 91506. You can immerse your taste buds in the authentic flavors of Argentina with every bite at World Empanadas.
